MINSOUTH SPONSORSHIP – GUIDELINES

MinSouth is the local Society for the Institute of Materials, Minerals and Mining in the South & South East of England. The Society would like to award a sponsorship for students at the universities specified below, who are studying subjects relevant to the MinSouth's interests of geology, mining and mineral processing.

The courses currently considered eligible include those listed in the table below:

COURSE	UNIVERSITY
Mining Engineering	Exeter - Camborne School of Mines
Geology	Bristol, Exeter - Camborne School of Mines, Imperial College, Kingston, Oxford, Portsmouth, Royal Holloway, Southampton, Bristol, UCL
Applied Geology	Exeter - Camborne School of Mines
Engineering Geology and Geotechnics	Exeter - Camborne School of Mines, Portsmouth

Other courses of similar content from other Universities in our Region will be considered.

The application form should be sent to the above e-mail and be accompanied by the following:

- A letter from the Applicant outlining their interest in a career in the mining or minerals industry.
- A letter from the student's Personal Tutor, Programme Director, or Head of Department, supporting the application and providing documentation of pass marks and suitable attendance.

The Award

The sponsorship will be up to £1,000 to be paid in the student's Final Year of an eligible course, subject to the terms and conditions of the sponsorship.

Eligibility

1. The award is to be allocated only to Undergraduates in their Final Year and dependent on having fulfilled their University's conditions i.e. attained the necessary pass marks and satisfied the attendance requirements.
2. The student applying should not be the recipient of any other major scholarship or sponsorship other than the normal student loans and educational grants.
3. The award will be open to all eligible applicants.

Expectations of the Student

1. The student must demonstrate, with supporting evidence from their university, that they have maintained acceptable academic results and attendance levels.
2. Study should be continuous unless exceptional conditions apply.
3. Sponsorship will be terminated should any recipient be involved in unethical practices or exhibit unprofessional conduct at any time during the tenure of the sponsorship. Such activities are to be adjudicated by the educational establishment and the MinSouth awarding committee.
